ABSTRACT

Intended as a resource guide for school personnel working with bilingual students and/or students for whom English is a second language, the annotated bibliography cites approximately 301 materials on the Puerto Rican and Mexican cultures. Divided into 3 major categories, the bibliography cites 30 books on the history and culture of the people in Mexico; 61 posters, heritage units, student and teacher texts, and literature on the Mexican American people in the United States; and 210 materials, books, and student and teacher texts on Puerto Rico and Puerto Ricans in the United States. The bibliography begins with an alphabetized list of the materials which are annotated. Annotations include: title, author, publisher, suggested grade level (K through adult), and a description of the item. Code numbers referring to the identification system used by the Bureau of Bilingual Education in its resource library are provided for each annotation. A list of names and addresses of 472 publishers is appended. (NQA)

FOREWORD

This Annotated Bibliography of Materials on the Puerto Rican and Mexican Cultures is one component of a five-part series:

- An Annotated Bibliography of Reference Books for Bilingual Teachers
- An Annotated Bibliography of Audiovisual Materials for Bilingual Programs
- An Annotated Bibliography of Curriculum Materials for Spanish Bilingual Programs
- An Annotated Bibliography of English as a Second Language Instructional Materials
- An Annotated Bibliography of Materials on the Puerto Rican and Mexican Cultures

Each of these five bibliographies begins with an alphabetized list of the materials which will be annotated. The annotations include: title, author, publisher, suggested grade level, and a description of the item. Code numbers to the left of each annotation refer to the identification system used by the Bureau of Bilingual Education in its resource library. If, as in some cases, numbers in a sequence appear to be omitted (e.g. MEX 11, followed by MEX 13), it is because the number is being held in reserve in anticipation of additions to the same series of books. A list of names and addresses of publishers is also included, in the appendix.

The bibliographies are intended to serve as resource guides for school personnel working with students who are bilingual and/or students for whom English is a second language. Materials included in the bibliographies may be examined in the resource library of the Bureau of Bilingual Education, New York State Education Department, Albany, New York. Please call: 518-474-8775 to make an appointment.

This series of five bibliographies has been funded by combined Title I Migrant, ESEA Title VII, and CRA Title IV funds.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This bibliography was originally initiated and developed by Josephine Estrada, former Supervisor, Bureau of Bilingual Education, as part of the Title I Migrant Materials Acquisition and Program Development Project.

The following persons assisted with the annotations and review of the bibliographies: Martha Arroyo, Enid Audinot, Gloria Blinder, Edith Cruz, Jocelyn Dax, Josephine Estrada, Mary Destefani, Richard Dibble, Genis Meléndez, and Laurie Wellman.

Edith Cruz, Assistant, Bureau of Bilingual Education edited the bibliography, and Laurie Wellman, Associate, Bureau of Bilingual Education prepared the series for publication.
